

Programming Committee Application Form

The Toronto Ward Museum was founded by a diverse group of individuals and organizations interested in making the heritage sector in Toronto more inclusive. Since its inception, our programming has been built on strategic partnerships and collaboration. By joining the committee you'll play an advisory role and ensure that the museum continues to produce programming that is inclusive, innovative, and collaborative.

The programming committee is responsible for working with Toronto Ward Museum staff to help the museum develop and deliver content and programming each year.
