

BUILDING A BLUEPRINT TO ADDRESS GBV AGAINST NON-STATUS, REFUGEE AND IMMIGRANT WOMEN ACROSS CANADA

Working together to advocate and develop promising practices to address GBV against NSRI women grounded in survivor-led and community-based advocacy models.

LET'S BUILD THE BLUEPRINT TOGETHER!

We invite non-status, refugee and immigrant women, community members, service providers, organizational leaders and advocates to join our upcoming meeting:

- ➔ Join us as we work towards building a national network to strengthen ongoing work addressing GBV against NSRI women.
- ➔ Participate in collective discussions to develop advocacy plans at a national and regional level.
- ➔ Develop meaningful relationships and partnerships to expand our collective understanding of GBV against racialized, non-status, refugee and immigrant women.
- ➔ Support equitable opportunities that center the knowledge and expertise of NSRI women to further improve access to supports and healing for GBV across Canada.
