Land Acknowledgement

The land we are standing on today is the traditional territory of many nations including but not limited to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation, the Anishinaabe, the Chippewa, the Huron Wendat, the Seneca, and the Haudenosaunee. It is now home to many diverse First Nations, Indigenous, Inuit and Métis people. It is part of Dish with One Spoon Territory, Treaty 13 territory, and the Williams Treaty.
Workshop Agenda

1. Introductions/ Icebreaker Activity
2. Evidence around inequities
3. Equity Framework: Five domains
4. Taking action: Scope of governance in equity work
5. Tools and resources
Learning Objectives

1. Understand current evidence around why boards should be concerned with equity

2. Learn the five domains of an Equity Framework to guide equity practice within your organization

3. Explore the scope of governance in organizational equity work

4. Learn about tools and resources to support practice and measure progress
Icebreaker – 15 minutes

1. Find someone else in the room who serves one of the same priority populations as your organization

   E.g. seniors, immigrants, women, racialized groups, LGBTQ+, etc.

2. Ask each other:
   - Who are your priority populations?
   - Why are they your priority populations?
Why should Boards be concerned with equity?

- Who do we serve and why?
  - Mission, history, geography, capacity, etc.
  - Rooted in the Social Determinants of Health, Human Rights, Anti-Racism & Anti-Oppression frameworks

- What is the evidence of inequities affecting communities we work with?
Why should Boards be concerned with equity?

- Why is data so important?
  - Identifying inequities in terms of access and quality of services, as well as outcomes
  - Who is experiencing them and how

- Limitations around availability of data, organizational capacity to use it
- Data accountability and governance

Understanding the “Why”
Understanding the “Why”
Racialization of labour market

Even in the non-profit sector...

Feminization of poverty/low-wage labour market

Resource: Bridging the Gap (ONN, 2019)
How do we understand the issue?
Ever expanding and multifaceted...

- Systemic inequities & oppression
- Role of power
  - Imbalances of power resulting in unearned privileges
  - Power used actively to marginalize/disempower
- Intersectionality
Lightning Round: Check in

- What is one way your organization been grappling with these issues?
  - Different approaches, e.g. diversity, inclusion, anti-racism/anti-oppression, cultural humility, allyship

- What are the benefits and drawbacks of this approach?
2. Conceptual Equity Framework: Five domains to guide practice

- Make equity a strategic priority
- Develop structures and practices to support equity work
- Take specific actions to address multiple determinants of health on which the organization can have a direct impact
- Decrease all forms of discrimination and oppression within your organization
- Develop partnerships with others to improve equity at societal/population level

Note: The Equity Framework was adapted from Wyatt et al. (2016). Achieving Health Equity: A Guide for Health Care Organizations. IHI White Paper.

MAKE HEALTH EQUITY A STRATEGIC PRIORITY

1. Organizational position statement on equity, comprised of a definition as well as an expressed commitment or pledge

equity vision

Planned Parenthood Toronto is committed to being an agency that values and reflects the diverse communities of Toronto. We recognize that:

- Equity is different from equality.
- Equity is access to inclusive, high quality programming and services that respect your choices.
- Equity is ensuring that community input informs what we do and guides us to take action for social change that benefits you.
MAKE EQUITY A STRATEGIC PRIORITY

2. Demonstrated long-term leadership commitment to making equity a strategic priority

Access Alliance strategic priority “Drive Health Equity”

We demonstrate leadership in the community health sector and partnerships in order to address health disparities and achieve health equity for immigrants and refugees by undertaking research, social action and public policy work.

Over the course of this plan we will drive health equity by:

- Strengthening engagement and collaboration with the communities we serve;
- Influencing health equity policies for our priority populations, and
- Leading the development of health equity targets.”
